All words and phrases attempting to express our feelings seem inadequate compared to our sense of indebtedness and gratitude for the privilege of having the guidance of our four advisors, Miss Abos, Miss Howard, Mr. Kappstatter, and Mr. Knobler. However, we hope that this dedication will be in small measure, a symbol of our thanks.

CLASS ADVISOR

MISS RUTH MYERSON, B.A.

Mathematics

Miss Myerson, although somewhat conservative and sedate at times, is a fun-loving, easy-going person. Throughout our high school years she has helped to guide us along the road to success. Her patience and understanding have aided us greatly in times of doubt. Although engaged in many activities, Miss Myerson has never been too busy to take time out for one of her pupils. Her classes have always presented a challenge to every student. During her leisure time, she enjoys playing tennis, going skiing or ice skating and reading mathematics for pleasure. Miss Myerson's sincerity and congenial personality have won her the respect and admiration of the entire student body.

HOMEROOM TEACHER

MR. SPINDLER, B.A., M.A.

Art

One of the first teachers a student becomes acquainted with upon entering Arts High is Mr. Spindler. One does not have to be assigned to Mr. Spindler's art classes; one needs only to encounter him in the corridors in order to develop a warm friendship with this man. He is always eager to communicate his ideas and experiences to the people with whom he associates. He is full of gay stories about his life in Europe. He has something in common with both art and music majors for he deeply loves both subjects. Mr. Spindler is a favorite among the students because he has a sincere desire to see that they are all happy in school. He makes an honest effort to help them to do their best scholastically.

HOMEROOM TEACHER

MISS EMILY KRUCK, B.A., M.A.

History

Miss Kruck is well known for her pleasant disposition and her daily history test. Her encouragement and her advice have won her the respect and admiration of many. As a history teacher, Miss Kruck possesses an extraordinary knowledge of her subject and is satisfied only with perfection from her students. She is a teacher who understands her students and is patient in her handling of their problems. "To know her is to love her" is a phrase which characterizes Miss Kruck, not only as a teacher, but also as a close friend of all her students.

Always on the go, she likes to try new and different things. In school she's a member of the Vignette staff and the Student Council; outside of school she is active in the CYO, a bowling league, and in her church sodality. In her leisure hours, Gerry enjoys swimming, driving, shopping, dating, or movies. The friendly relations between students and teachers have impressed her most during her four years here. Her future plans include a secretarial career and marriage.

ARTHUR MYERS

475 South Tenth Street

Porky, a regular fellow with a wonderful personality, makes friends easily. He is crazy about white bucks, sport clothes and the color red. He likes operas and concerts. Art can usually be found somewhere on Eleventh Street. He thinks Mr. Maltese is the greatest. His friends include Carol Behler, Paulette Kane, Thomas Sherman and Pat Corbley. He is sure he has a terrible temper. Because his ambition is to be a grammar school teacher or a math teacher, he plans to enter one of the state colleges.

DENNIS WILLIAM PATRICCO

85 Pacific Street

Denny came to Arts from Oliver Street School. This brown-eyed, not so quiet young man enjoys going to dances. He likes rock 'n' roll music most because he finds it easy to dance to. Brown is Denny's favorite color and you frequently see him wearing that color. He found his art classes with Mr. Spindler very inspiring. He would like to attend the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art to prepare for a career as a commercial artist.

NATALIE PUGLIESE

336 Thirteenth Avenue

Pudgy arrived at Arts from Fourteenth Avenue School. She is usually found with Gerry and Nina Nigro and Judy Felipe. She has been a member of the Vignette staff, the Junior Class Cabinet, the YM-YWCA, and her church sodality. Short and dark, Natalie enjoys the opposite sex and has a heavy date schedule. Frank Sinatra, Johnny Mathis, movies, and souvenirs are her main interests. She has enjoyed everything at Arts but will especially remember Mr. Pickett's classes. She plans to attend Berkeley School to prepare for a secretarial career.

JANUARY 1961

JOAN L. REED

30 Eckert Avenue

Joan is a happy, amiable girl with many interests among which is her record collection. When she's not home, she can usually be found at the nearest party. Joan enjoys rock 'n' roll and uncomplicated jazz music. An active member of the Student Council and Girls' Glee Club, she has been vice-president of the Junior Red Cross. She will remember Mr. Steisel fondly as the teacher most likely to catch her chewing gum. Joan is undecided about the future but as for the past, she feels that her years at Arts have been her happiest.

SAUNDRA LESLIE ROUT

109 Littleton Avenue

Saundra, better known as Cookie to her friends, is a member of the Sewing Club, the Typing Club and the Library Guild. She is a graduate of South Eighth Street School. Cookie has an unusual habit of twisting her hair around her finger. Her favorite type of music is jazz and she particularly enjoys Mr. Pesile's classes. She is usually found at home listening to records or talking on the phone. After graduation she would like to enter a nurses training school.

PHILLIP RUDKO
742 Bergen Street

Phillip is a quiet, serious-minded person who enjoys the finer things in life such as classical music, painting, and the best of literature. He has particularly enjoyed studying under Mr. Spindler. His good friends are Stanley Friedman and Ira Kraemer.

He has enjoyed his fellow students, most of all in his years at Arts.

JO ANNE SCRIFFIANO
363 South Eleventh Street

Jo is a pretty, light-hearted girl who is fond of talking. She usually can be found at the YM-YWCA after school hours. Jo came from Fourteenth Avenue School. She loves to talk, draw, paint pictures at midnight and swim. Jo roams the halls with Barbara Stawicki and has the distinction of actually liking geometry. She is wild about anything in the color blue and thinks boys are really great! Archery is another of her pursuits of which she has many.

DELORES LOUISE VELOTIS
621 Sanford Avenue

This happy wanderer can be found strolling through the halls of Arts with Lois Brown and Kathy White. When at home, Dee is usually on the phone talking to Bob, her steady beau. Her spare moments are occupied with dancing, swimming, roller skating, or collecting stamps. Her after-school activities include the Glee Club, the Vignette, and playing the violin in the Orchestra. Instrumental music is Dee's favorite subject and Mr. Pesile, her favorite teacher.

ANDY D. ZAWACKI
107 Church Terrace

Andy came to us from Dayton Street School. He has many friends here at Arts but you are most likely to see him with Mort Werner, Clair Carff and Robert Turnbull. A smart dresser, he has to admit that clothes are his weakness. His favorite colors are red and black. Andy is often found practicing some sport, usually baseball or basketball. Mr. Spindler is his favorite teacher and as far as music goes, he thinks that jazz is tops.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

CHRISTMAS

The Unborn: "I'll wring the pleasure of the whole earth dry, rule, not be ruled, give burdens and not bear.

And all the world shall know that I am I!"

The Dead: "Be wise—Weave yourself a protection and disguise."

The Dead: "I am free! Now I know what joy is, and I come home after so long."

The Christmas Fair, a school-wide event, is presented annually at Arts High. It is always a memorable occasion for parents, students, friends, and alumni. Besides being one of the largest fund-raising projects, the fair gives members of the Art Department, the Music Department, and club groups an opportunity to work for a common cause. Their combined efforts produce such articles as paintings, aprons, jewelry, dolls, beanies, and other novelties. All these things, plus contributions from students, such as cakes and cookies, provide an interesting selection for purchasers.

However, the most colorful and meaningful part of the entire affair is the presentation of the religious tableaux, with choral accompaniment under the direction of Mr. Pickett. For the first time this year, there was also a Christmas Sketch. "The Cloak," a morality play by Clifford Bax, was performed under the guidance of Mr. Maltese. The purpose of these vivid presentations is to depict the real meaning of Christmas.

Mr. Spindler engages in conversation with a few prospective customers.

Handle with care, please.

FAIR

If I were only rich!

One-two-three. I choose thee!

DANCE

*"The prettiest girl I ever saw
Was sipping cider through a straw."*

And the band played on . . .!!!

Obviously there are no calorie counters here this evening.

Donna is wondering where the yellow went.

In a Sicilian village, on Easter morning, Turridu is heard singing a serenade to Lola, whom he wooed before serving in the Army, and returned to find married to Alfio. He turns to Santuzza who loves him desperately, only to experience great jealousy as Turridu's love for Lola has not died. Santuzza, excommunicated, enters seeking Turridu at Mamma Lucia's dwelling, Alfio enters singing praises of his life as a carriage-maker. The peasants gather to sing. Left alone, Santuzza confesses to Mamma Lucia her love for Turridu. Lucia, stunned, goes into church to pray. Turridu enters and is annoyed immediately by Santuzza's pleas to be faithful to her. His inclinations are obvious upon Lola's flirtatious entrance and exit.

Turridu's striking of Santuzza causes her to reveal all to vengeful Alfio.

Following the "Intermezzo," the peasants leave the church and join in a drinking song. Alfio's remarks to Turridu give cause for a duel. Soon a desperate cry is heard, "They've killed Turridu." Santuzza and Mamma Lucia succumb to grief.

"May Hell's curse fall upon you!" says Santuzza (Josephine Graziano) to Turridu (Kenneth Lancin).

"May the Lord give you blessing. I must be going." says Lola (Caroline Thomas) to Turridu.

OPERETTA CLUB

The Operetta Club forms the nucleus for the vocal productions of the school. Membership in the club is limited to those who pass an audition given by Mr. Pickett, its director. All students, regardless of their major sequence are eligible for membership. However, members must show a real willingness to work since rehearsals are held twice weekly and more frequently before performances. Training and experience in singing leads, supporting chorus work, acting, costuming and stage techniques are integral parts of the club activities.

CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA

"I accept your challenge!" says Turridu to Alfio (Paul Horniacek).

Santuzza pleads for help from Mamma Lucia (Bohdanna Rycar).

All eyes are on the mayor, Margery Dubrow.

Mayor Dubrow welcomes new students to Arts High.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the governing body of the school. It promotes co-operation among students and enables them to obtain experience in democratic citizenship.

Members are chosen to represent the homerooms and clubs. Each has the opportunity to voice his opinion on school problems and improvements in student government. The council supervises after-school activities and plans the variety shows, dances, and the semi-annual New Student Orientation.

The Student Council is headed by a mayor and deputy mayor who are elected once a year by the entire student body. This year, Mrs. Gladys Longley and Mr. Leonard Morris are co-advisors.

GIRLS' SWIMMING CLUB

The Girls' Swimming Club was organized this year under the supervision of Mrs. Lazar. It is limited to a membership of 20 girls who meet once a week from March until June at the Morris Avenue Pool. Its main purpose is to cooperate in advancing girls sports in all the high schools of our city.

T-SQUARE AND TRIANGLE CLUB

Under the supervision of Mr. Gannon, the T-Square and Triangle Club meets every Wednesday afternoon in the shop. The members learn, among other things, how to read blueprints and how to make architectural drawings to scale. New methods in architecture are studied and models of houses and bridges are made. The club affords its members the opportunity to broaden their architectural experiences as well as to work with a group of students with serious architectural goals.

They also enjoy typing mystery games and pictures as well as papers, letters, etc. The membership is limited because of the number of machines available, but all students with at least one term of typing may apply for membership.

Dr. Seamster, our principal, proudly introduces the program of the National Honor Society.

One of the highest positions of esteem that a student can attain is membership in the National Honor Society. Students are chosen by a faculty committee to represent our school in this organization. They must be members of the junior or senior class and possess the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. They are inducted semi-annually in a candlelight ceremony. The pin which they receive is recognized throughout the nation as a symbol of achievement.

Our chapter of the National Honor Society, named in honor of our former vice-principal, M. Bernice Hamilton, is under the direction of Mr. Clamurro.

Through perseverance, the members improve upon their skills and learn the meaning of sportsmanship. The club also gives the boys an opportunity to gain new friendships. Late in the season, the group sponsors a Faculty-Varsity Game and Dance, and in the spring holds a Varsity Dinner.

HIGHLIGHTS

Last season, Arts won eleven games and lost only six. Five of the last six games were won by our team.

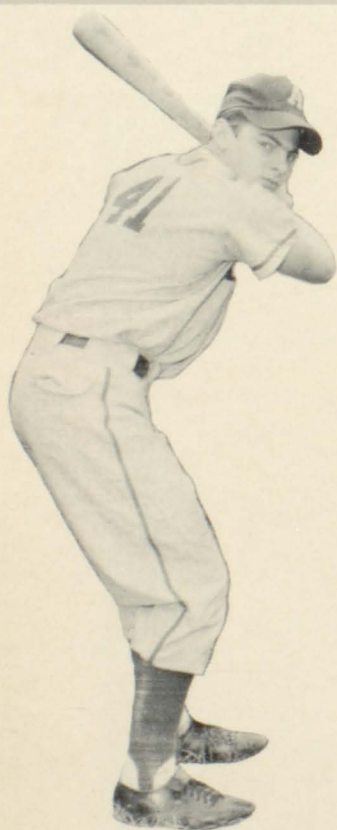

The development of Ronald Venturi and Pat Piegari as pitchers and the hitting of Frank Votto and Robert Fleischman were outstanding.

Ronald Venturi pitched a no-hit, no-run game against Bloomfield Tech which proved to be very exciting.

I'll get you yet!

Off we go . . .!!!

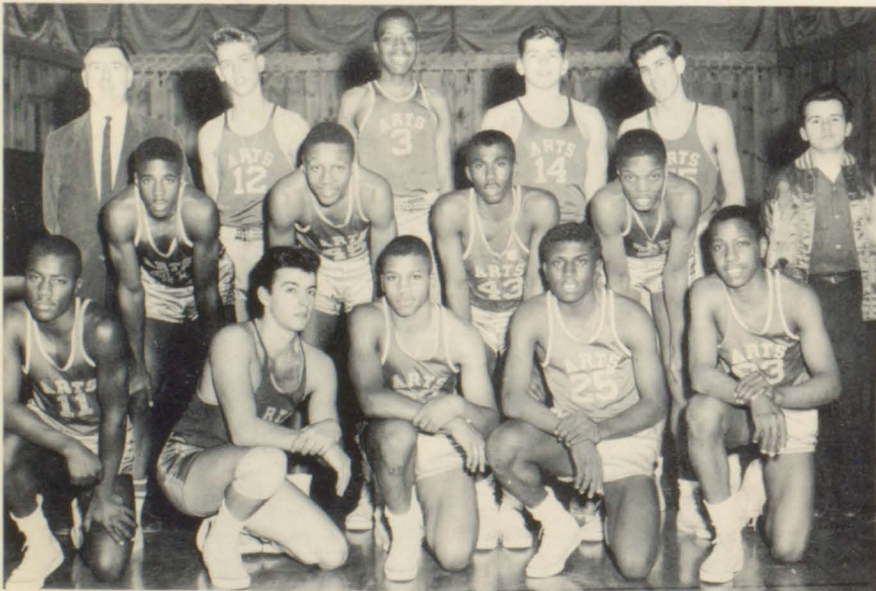

HIGHLIGHTS

Although the 1959-1960 team started out with very little experience, the boys soon acquired the necessary skills to complete a 10-10 season. This is the fifth consecutive season that the team has had a winning record.

The most exciting games were with Paterson Tech, which we lost, and with St. Mary's of Rutherford. That game, which was the last of the season, was won by our team.

Mr. Voller, the coach, felt that the boys were the victims of "hard luck" in losing two overtime games. The first was a double overtime loss to Glen Ridge and the second an overtime loss to Pingry.

Mr. Knobler discusses the outcome of the meet with Neil and Gene.

Our swimming team did quite well this season with a record of six wins and four losses. Despite the fact that there were a great many freshmen on the squad, they still ranked fourth in the city. Neil Travisano and Gene Geldziler were this season's outstanding team members. Besides Neil and Gene the squad will also lose two other seniors, Sheldon Sauders and Adam Ziobro all of whom are among this year's graduates. Because of the brilliant showing of the freshmen members, next year will, in all probability, be bigger and better.

"Let's see now, who can swim the 100 in 30 seconds flat?"

TRACK TEAM

High hopes of a successful season are entertained by all members of the track team. For the first time in the history of Arts High the track team won the city championship. Under the able coaching of Mr. Lang the juniors captured the city crown. We hope that these outstanding team members Vladamir Pawlowski, David Thomas, Leonard Ludovico and Harry Hines will join our established veterans William Thomas, Robert Brennen, Dennis Woloch, and Lenwood Jackson to form a well-balanced and successful group. The team is now under the expert supervision of Mr. Thomas.

Dear Miss Kruck,

As with all good things in life, we tend to take them for granted. The sudden announcement of your retirement only served to remind us more forcefully than ever of your kindness and consideration for everyone with whom you came in contact.

We remember fondly your morning Bible readings; the announcement of birthdays, the Junior Red Cross projects, the listing of college acceptances and even your motherly reprimands attempting to perfect everyone in homeroom. It was through you that an air of friendly congeniality prevailed in 318 every morning and it became a pleasant meeting place for the class and their friends.

It is impossible for us to fully express our thanks for your guidance and friendship during our four years at Arts High. We can only wish you all the happiness possible in the future.

Affectionately,

Dear Miss Kruck . . .
